

Vacation accommodation and recreational savings – Maui, Hawaii

Utilizing one of the membership cards in the Coastal package, we stayed in a spacious 1250 sq. ft. 2 bedroom / 2 bath condo with a full kitchen, washer & dryer and balcony (lanai) on the beach in Maui, Hawaii. The total cost for 8 days / 7 nights during the last week of summer (peak season – returning labor day weekend) was only $738.32 including all taxes and processing fees. (a single bedroom unit with all the same amenities and duration was also available for under $500.00) If we had waited and booked our accommodations closer to our departure date the rate would naturally drop an additional $100.00 to $200.00 or more. However at the time we didn't have that much flexibility in our schedule and we definitely did not want to risk losing the accommodation to someone else.

Typically the two bedroom condo we chose could sleep up to 6 people very comfortably (also included a sleeper sofa) and the rate would not increase for additional guests, most importantly these accommodations would generally cost a non-member between $1,800.00 & $2,500.00 or more per week depending upon the season. The accommodations were easily booked online and confirmed through an email. This was the view from our patio / lanai. (image to the right)

In addition to the condo savings, we saved 20% on a 45 minute helicopter tour taking us above the world's tallest sea cliffs and secluded waterfalls on the neighboring island of Molokai. Plus we saved approximately $43.25 on our rental car, received two for one dining at several restaurants in Lahaina and two for one parasailing at Kaanapali Beach using our Coastal membership cards.
